

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 21

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES
7 July 1976

CAMPAIGN BRIEFS

Carter Meets With CIA Director

From The Times Staff and Wire Services

Prospective Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter said he had held a meeting in Hershey, Pa., Monday night with Director George Bush of the Central Intelligence Agency and other CIA officials to discuss arrangements for briefing him on world affairs while he is pursuing his candidacy. Carter expressed satisfaction with the initial talk with Bush and said he would receive a six-hour briefing shortly after receiving the Democratic nomination next week.